IDC Governance Committee - Terms of Reference

1. Background
The International Detention Coalition (IDC) is a unique global network, of over 300 civil society organisations and individuals in more than 70 countries, that advocate for, research and provide direct services to refugees, asylum-seekers and migrants affected by immigration detention.

The IDC works to ensure that the human rights of refugees, asylum seekers and migrants impacted by immigration detention are respected, protected and fulfilled.

The IDC aims to bring about changes in legislation, policy and practice that prevent, mitigate and respond to the harms associated with immigration detention and that promote alternatives to detention. The IDC does this through network and capacity building, advocacy, awareness raising and campaigns, research and reporting.

2. IDC Governance History
In September 2005, the IDC formalized a 3-year Steering Committee to provide a governance structure for the work of the IDC, which was coordinated by 2 volunteers and supported by the role of 13 regional representatives in 12 regions.

In June 2008, a decision was made for the IDC to move towards becoming an incorporated organization with the capacity to receive funds and employ staff. Oxfam Australia undertook to support the IDC during this period of transition from a volunteer network to a funded not-for-profit organization. Pro-bono legal advice was sought in September 2008 and a Governance Working Group was formed, comprised of representatives from the Steering Committee, Oxfam Australia and the former IDC Coordinators, and the current IDC Director, aimed at working on the legal obligations required to become an incorporated body.

In February, 2009, the IDC Statement of Purpose and Constitution were completed, and forwarded to the Steering Committee, together with a list of 5 people interested in joining the Governance and Finance Committee (Board), which was adopted on the March 2nd, 2009 IDC General Meeting.

At the IDC Retreat in Kuala Lumpur in April 2014, a number of revisions to the IDC Governance Structure were approved, outlined in the revised Terms of Reference Below.

3. IDC Governance Structure
Given the changing nature of the IDC from a volunteer network to a formal incorporated organization, and the accompanying legal requirements in Australia under Victorian law (Associations Incorporation Reform Act 2012), an IDC Governance structure has been developed which takes into account the small secretariat and limited resources to manage, while ensuring international and member representation and input.

The IDC governance structure has 3 levels:

1) Governance and Finance Committee (Board)
2) International Advisory Committee (IAC)
3) Secretariat

1) Governance and Finance Committee (Board) - Between 5 and 7 members oversee governance and finance matters, such as staffing, budgetary, finance and reporting requirements. They also approve the IDC Strategic Plan. At least two IAC representatives sit on the Board, with two Board members required by law to be Australian residents. The Board meet each quarter and formally table, minute and approve reports by the Secretariat and oversee operations. The Board carry the legal responsibility for the organization.

2) International Advisory Committee (IAC) - A maximum 30 individuals drawn from the IDC membership, provide input and guidance on the 4 key areas of work of the IDC. They are eligible to vote at the annual AGM and may nominate for a Board position. Regional Advisors are drawn from the IAC. Regional Advisors (RA) - Regional Advisors are drawn from the membership within each of the 5 regions that IDC work. Their advice on regionally relevant issues help guide strategic planning of the organization. Their advice also helps IDC staff make informed decisions about regional matters. International Advisors (IA) - International Advisors are drawn from the membership based upon their international and/or thematic areas of expertise. Their advice on areas relevant to the IDC’s 4 key areas of work and strategic priorities help to enhance our expertise, strategic planning and global advocacy.
